

No Idols

Jamie Lipe

So much in the way, So much in today that steals my time
So many shiny things, So many blinding things that dull my mind

When it's only getting harder to breathe
In a world captivated with itself

I am Yours
I am Yours
I will have no idols, No
I am Yours

I will have no idols standing in the way of the One I love
No idols standing in between me and You
I will have no idols blocking my view of the One I love
No idols fooling me to stay away from You

(Ending)

When it's only getting harder to breathe
You're the only One I want to see

I am Yours
I am Yours
I will have no idols
I will have no idols
No idols
No idols
